notice

On March 25, 1993, the Federal Communications Commission designated for hearing the applications of Community Television of Southern California and Valley Public Television, Inc. for a construction permit for a new non-commercial educational television station to operate on Channel 39 in Bakersfield, California. The hearing will be held in Washington, D.C. at the offices of the FCC, commencing at 10:00 A.M., on August 17, 1993. The issues designated are to determine the following:

(1) With respect to Valley Public Television, Inc., if circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of Section 73.610 of the FCC's rules;

(2) The extent to which each applicant's proposed operation will be integrated into the overall cultural and educational objectives of the respective applicants;

(3) Whether the factors in the record demonstrate that one applicant will provide a superior non-commercial educational broadcast service;

(4) In light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the applications should be granted, if either.

A copy of the application of Community Television of Southern California, amendments thereto and related materials are on file for public inspection during normal business hours at Werdel & Werdel, 5500 Ming Ave., Suite 190, Bakersfield, California.
